Singer, songwriter and actress, from Minas Gerais, Silvia Nicolatto has performed in theatres, venues and projects in Minas Gerais, Rio de Janeiro and São Paulo.

Silvia has been invited to perform at the Cornwall Folk Music Festival, in August 2013 and she is recording a new album in Brazil to be ready in 2013.

Recently, Silvia has performed in São Paulo at CEU Jaçanã, SESC Vila Mariana, Casa de Francisca, Fnac, Paraíso Subway Station, among others.

Silvia released the independent album "Além dos Gestos", and participated also in the "Brazilian Romance" compilation, released worldwide by DTS, with the song "Na curva do rio".

Silvia went to a successful tour in Dorset and Cornwall, in the end of 2011, playing her compositions and partnerships with British musicians from Cornwall and London - Pete Kubryk Townsend, Pete Turner and Neil Davey, having performed in Falmouth, Penryn, Porthtowan, St Austell, Sturminster Newton, Truro, Uptown Cross and West Stafford.

This nice musical experience resulted in an album, a Brazilian/British co-production merging Brazilian and Cornish music, "Silvia Nicolatto and her Anglo-Cornish friends", still unreleased, but available for audition and sale on Silvia's website. The album features the special appearance of Ari Colares, playing the zabumba, and of Hilary Coleman, singing and playing bass clarinet in one track.
